

PLAN BIG PARADE FOR PFC. WAYNE ERICKSEN

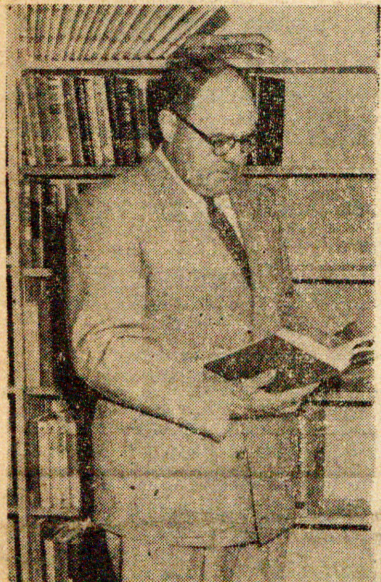

New Mokena Village Ordinance Requires
Mufflers in Working Order on All Cars49% PROFIT NETTED BY HOMECOMING

Figures have been released showing the approximate gross income for the recent Homecoming at Mokena. The gross income was $8550, net income $4200, and the profit 49%, a gain against a gross income of $6940 for 1952, net income of $1400 and profit of 20%.

70% of the income will go to the new park fund, while the remainder will be split equally between the Lions club and the Civic Association.

Official figures have not been released up to this time, so that a detailed breakdown comparing last year's income and expenses with those of this year is not available. Finance chairman, Lion Lyman Teague, who is also a Civic Association member, reports that such a comparison will be completed early in September.

At any rate, enough money was made to pay for the new park in full, with a modest balance available for the start of planning and equipping. And the two sponsoring clubs netted funds with which to carry out their activities.

Peotone Carnival
To Begin Friday

A new feature is being added to the annual Peotone carnival this year, Gerard Murray, general chairman announced. He said a homecoming program will be allied with the carnival in an effort to help old friends renew acquaintanceships of long ago.

The carnival is scheduled to be held Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Sept. 11, 12 and 13, in the heart of Peotone's business section.

"We're sparing no expense of effort to obtain the best in entertainment, rides, and prizes," says James Stevenson, vice president. "We feel that today's American family has to get their money's worth in an entertainment investment—and we really plan to give it to them."

397 Public School
Children Register
Tues. in N. Lenox

Mr. John Oster, superintendent of the public schools of New Lenox, reports that 397 children registered Tuesday morning, which was more than had been anticipated. The expectation was for 375 registrations, but it is quite possible that many have moved in to New Lenox in the past few weeks. At the close of school last year there were 345 pupils in the public schools in New Lenox.

Twenty pupils were gained by the recent annexation of the Gougar district school, but these had been expected.

The registration at the Oak View school was:

Kindergarten 52, First grade, 27, Second, 22, Third, 23, Fourth, 23.

Children from the first to the fourth grade from the Gougar school are now attending Oak View school. Gougar school children from the 5th grade up are attending Haven Ave. school.

Children from the Gougar district are being brought to their schools in New Lenox by bus.

In the Haven Avenue school the attendance is broken down as follows: First grade, 29, Second, 31, Third, 23, Fourth, 14, Fifth, 33, Sixth, 44, Seventh, 33, Eighth, 38.

While the pupils in attendance at the New Lenox public schools are more numerous than had been expected, they have a sufficiently large staff of teachers and the rooms are not crowded.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH TO HAVE ADDITION

The excavation for a new addition to the St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church at Frankfort has been completed. Because of the overcrowded condition in the Sunday school rooms this addition has been deemed necessary.

The addition, which is to the south of the present church, will face west and will contain 16 classrooms, a choir room, a nursery, a pastor's study and office, a large new kitchen, and storage space. The present kitchen will be removed, and that space will be added to the dining room. There will also be new modern toilets installed in this addition.

It is planned to have the addition under roof before winter, so they can work on it during the wintertime. Most of the work is being done by members of the church. Members of the building committee are, Clark Bennett, chairman, Victor Eisenbrandt, Robert Hohenstein, Richard Oetter and Albert Kruse. The architects are A. J. Kruegel and S. W. Wilkins, of Joliet.

The building will be finished in the same red brick as the present church building. Rev. Eric Bizer is the pastor.

However, despite the fact that good service has been given during the past two and a half years there has been no increase in revenue. More than $30,000 has been lost in the past five and a half years. This necessitated an increase in fares if the company was to continue to operate.

Had it not been for Charter buses, the company would have shown a loss of $10,200 in 1952. This indicates that the regular runs between these points are not have sufficient passenger volume to pay for maintaining the service. "If this fare increase does not increase the revenue, there is only one thing to do, and that is to discontinue some of the daily schedules," a company official said.

The company is offering a 46 ride individual monthly ticket with an unlimited number of rides. If a commuter uses more than 46 rides, which is at the rate of 1.8 cents per mile, he can turn in the used ticket for a new one, and ride free of charge for the remainder of the month.

Ten and 25 ride commutation tickets are valid for one year. More than one person is privileged to use these tickets. The minimum fare is 20 cents per ride.

Damages Auto When
Steer Walks Into It

As Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Houchin were returning to Mokena Saturday evening, after having had dinner with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yaseen, at Chicago Heights, they figured in an auto accident.

As they were coming north on Wolf road about 100 feet north of the William Kasper, Sr. home (the former Mrs. Cleveland home), a black steer suddenly popped up out of the ditch on the east side of the road, directly in front of the Houchin's car. Mr. Houchin applied his brakes instantly, and although he was traveling at a slow rate of speed it was impossible to avoid hitting the animal.

The radiator, right headlight and fender were bashed in, as well as the hood, and the right hand door was sprung. The steer was killed by the impact. State police were called, and upon investigation found that the animal belonged to Norval Strassenberg, who works the land owned by the Franciscan Fathers of Pulaski, Wisconsin.

The Cooper & Hostert garage towed the car to the Houchin's trailer home, located on the Wilbert Spiess farm north of Mokena on Maple road.

Aside from being shaken up as a result of the impact, no one was injured. The Houchins were prepared to leave Thursday for Texas where they spend the winter.

FARE INCREASE
GRANTED GOLD
STAR BUS LINE

The first fare increase in 14 years was recently put into effect on the Gold Star Bus Line, operating between Joliet, Chicago Heights and Hammond, Ind. The increase, which was granted by the Commerce Commission was allowed to go into effect Aug. 1, 1953, but was not made effective by the management until August 10. Despite the fact that labor, fuel and parts costs have risen 100%, bus fares were raised only 29.9% on basic fares.

Since 1947 the bus line has operated at a loss. In 1951 it was taken over by new management. It was thought that if dependable service were given the revenue would show an increase.

However, despite the fact that good service has been given during the past two and a half years there has been no increase in revenue. More than $30,000 has been lost in the past five and a half years. This necessitated an increase in fares if the company was to continue to operate.

Had it not been for Charter buses, the company would have shown a loss of $10,200 in 1952. This indicates that the regular runs between these points are not have sufficient passenger volume to pay for maintaining the service. "If this fare increase does not increase the revenue, there is only one thing to do, and that is to discontinue some of the daily schedules," a company official said.

HOLD FOX HUNT AFTER KILLING RABID FOX

(CNS) A fox hunt was held Wednesday in Deer Grove forest preserve in Palatine township, following the slaying of a rabid fox who bit a night editor of a news service.

Arnold A. Dornfeld, 46, of Swift road, Lombard, and his wife, Edna, strangled the fox with a belt after it sunk its teeth into Dornfeld's arm.

The fox crept up to the Dornfelds as they picked up a fire in the preserve Tuesday night.

At first they believed the animal was a dog.

"Hello, doggie," said Mrs. Dornfeld. The bold fox then bit Dornfeld when he petted it.

Dornfeld, a City News Bureau editor, strangled the fox, put in under the exhaust of his running car, then cut off the animal's head. Chicago health department tests disclosed the fox had rabies and Dornfeld was given shots.

The area was not placed under quarantine since there weren't two or more rabid animals found. Four armed Forest Rangers patrolled the area Wednesday in the fox hunt.

Maine and Leyden townships were placed under quarantine earlier this year after several foxes and a skunk were found with rabies. Thornton township still was under quarantine, ordered by Dr. John Hall, county health director, after several dogs were found with rabies in that area.

Farmers Warned to Be Cautious In Employing Children

Farm labor is scarce, as most farmers know and often the employment of children can make a big difference in the harvesting of a crop such as tomatoes. But Cook county farmers should be cautious in employing children. There are laws to control the employment of minors. Violation of the laws can bring as much as a $10,000 fine.

Under the wage and hour law two basic requirements must be met in the employment of minors. They are:

1. Farmers may not employ children under 16 years of age in agriculture during school hours, and
2. Farmers must also keep certain records required by regulations under the act regarding the minors they employ.

These basic requirements apply to the employment of migratory children as well as local resident children. They do not, however, apply to the employment of a farmer's own children on his farm.

Farmers hiring young persons should request a certificate proving the minor's age. The certificate should show the youngster is at least 16 years old, and should be issued by the U. S. Department of Labor or by an accepted state agency.

Every farmer must keep records for any children under 18 years of age employed on any day that school is in session in the district where the child is living while so employed. Records should show:

1. Name in full, 2. Place where the minor lives while employed. If the minor's permanent home address is different, give both addresses; and 3. Date of birth. These records must be preserved for at least three years, according to the article. Violation of the child labor requirements of the fair labor standards act carries penalties designed to discourage any farmer who might take a chance.

A NEW CHAIN-TYPE ROW-CROP ATTACHMENT

for the GEHL Forage Harvester

Farmers who prefer a row-crop attachment with chain-type gatherers, can now have it for the Gehl Forage Harvester, and it is different than most chain-type gatherers. Here are some of its advantages:

- Has no bevel gears for Cross-Chain Drive... uses roller chain, enclosed up and out of the dust and dirt.
- Heavy 62 detachable steel chain is used... less chance for break-downs.
- Has the same time-proved driving mechanism and clutch used so successfully for years on Gehl Row-Crop Attachments.
- Sturdy, compact and delivers faster, cleaner cutting.
- Easily mounted on Gehl power take-off or motor-driven forage harvester.
- Special "down-corn" attachment is available.

Compare this new Gehl Row-Crop Attachment with other chain-type gatherers. Come in and see its many advantages.

Remember, more Gehl Forage Harvesters have been sold than those of any other independent manufacturer... famous for that highly-important, fast, uniform chopping that makes better feed, silage that packs better and keeps well.

Uncle Sam Insists That Home Wine Makers File Form

(CNS) A loaf of bread, a jug of wine and thou!—and don't forget Form 1541.

With the grape season at hand, Form 1541 becomes an important item for wine makers. According to Ernest C. Wright, regional director of internal revenue, the law specifies that the head of a family may make up to 200 gallons of wine for home consumption, but he must also first register his intention to do so on Form 1541 with the alcohol and tobacco tax unit of the internal revenue bureau.

Unfortunately, this exemption from the federal liquor tax is only good for married persons living with their families or with others who qualify as the head of the family.

Form 1541s are available at the alcohol and tobacco tax unit on the 17th floor at 17 N. Dearborn, Chicago, or through the mail at Box 1144, Chicago 90, or Box 54, Springfield. Two copies must be made out and returned at least five days before production of the home brew is begun.

Wright said that last year 2,500 Chicagoans, 3,600 Illinois residents and 300 persons from Wisconsin had filed applications for home wine making.

If the home made batch is over 200 gallons, a tax of 17 cents on each gallon must be paid for wines ranging from 8 to 14 per cent alcohol.

Wright pointed out that failure to register intent to produce wine for family use will result in having to pay the regular alcohol tax on what is produced and possible criminal prosecution.

for the CA — champion tractor of the two-plow class

Now Allis-Chalmers offers 2-way plowing... two 12- or 14-inch bottoms... for the CA Tractor.

This spinner-type, close-coupled, 2-way plow eliminates dead furrows. On flat land the field is plowed level from side to side — so essential for irrigation and good surface drainage. On hillsides and rolling land... all furrows are turned uphill to resist downward creeping of the soil and to reduce runoff.

Priced only slightly higher than a one-way moldboard plow, the new 2-way plow is hydraulically lifted and uses CA Traction Booster to put extra weight on drive wheels.

Let us demonstrate.

2-way Spinner-type Plows are available for both WD and CA Tractors

This demonstration was worth many hundreds of dollars to me!

I thought only a higher-priced car would suit me. But then I found out how much more Chevrolet offered for how much less!

You're "sitting pretty" behind the wheel

Take this Bel Air model. First thing you'll notice is the quality of the interior. Rich-looking appointments. Roomy seats with foam rubber cushions. Turn the key to start the engine and you're ready to go.

You can see all around

You look out and down through a wide, curved, one-piece windshield. The panoramic rear window and big side windows provide a clear view in all directions.

You get more power on less gas

That's because Chevrolet's two great valve-in-head engines are high-compression engines. In Powerglide* models, you get the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field — the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame." Gear-shift models offer the advanced 108-h.p. "Thrifty-King" engine.

Biggest brakes for smoother, easier stops

An easy nudge on the pedal brings smooth, positive response

—right now! Chevrolet's improved brakes are the largest in the low-price field.

It's heavier for better roadability

You're in for a pleasant surprise at the smooth, steady, big-car ride of this new Chevrolet. One reason is that, model for model, Chevrolet will weigh up to 200 pounds more than the other low-priced cars.

You get greater getaway with the new Powerglide*

A lot finer performance on a lot less gas. That's what you get with the new Powerglide automatic transmission. There's no more advanced automatic transmission at any price.

And it's the lowest-priced line

A demonstration will show you that Chevrolet offers just about everything you could want. Yet it's the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.

*Combination of Powerglide automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.

Let us demonstrate all the advantages of buying a Chevrolet now!

MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

Mrs. E. Mrosek
Orland 41-J-1

The Orland Boy's 4H club met at Maue school Friday, at 8 p.m. Record books were checked, Dar rell Erickson, LeRoy Aggen and Edward L. Mrosek, were chosen as a committee to plan the achievement meeting. Speakers of the evening and their subjects were: Dennis Turay, Camping Trip; Jerry Gorman, Feeding Hogs; Arthur Maue, Care of Sheep; Leslie Yunker, Preparing for Show. Richard Meier and Donald Alexander furnished refreshments.

Mrs. Chester Williams and son, Reed spent several days with his grandmother, Mrs. Roy Williams in Oconee last week. Mrs. Jeanette Evans of Warden, Wash., enroute home from a tour of European countries not restricted by the iron curtain, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams Friday through Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Evans, an English teacher at the Warden high school, made the tour with a group that was composed largely of students from the University of Washington in Seattle. Mrs. Evans had so many interesting stories to tell about her travels that, to quote Mrs. Williams, "we just talked a mile a minute."

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ridlin and children, Judy and Jimmy, of Fort Wayne, Ind., were guests of his father, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Ridlin, for a few days last week. Mrs. LaVerne Alexander and son Lowell of Chicago were weekend and Labor day guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Culp. Mrs. Alexander's visit was timely. Her mother kept her busy canning tomatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Geisen of Chicago, visited at the home of the Edward Mroseks and were dinner guests of the Stuart Culp Labor Day. Their daughter, Evelyn, who has been visiting with the young fry of 102d ave. the past two weeks, returned home with her parents.

Miss Marie Chalfant, who spent the summer at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams, left early Wednesday morning to return to her teaching position in Pana where she has been a teacher of the first grade the past 40 years.

Mrs. Hazel Brown, Maue's upper grade teacher, returned to her home in Orland recently after an interesting vacation of travel in the Northwestern states. Mrs. Brown, her husband, William, who is a science teacher in Orland high school, and their son Roger had traveled through Iowa and Nebraska and on to Casper, Wyo. where they spent most of the early part of their vacation. At Casper they visited with her relatives and made trips to outlying points of interest such as Independence Rock which is a land mark on the old Oregon trail; Alcova dam; the Midwest oil fields which supply the three large refineries in Casper; and Casper mountain which looms to a height of 8000 feet. They also attended the annual fair and rodeo in Casper. It was at Casper that a very small boy gave Mrs. Brown the impression that he thought she didn't know nothing simply because she had never seen a sheep wagon.

The Browns, however, did see a sheep wagon just after it and 2700 sheep and their attending herders and sheep dogs had come down from the Big Horn mountains. They also saw the Tom Sun ranch which is one of Wyoming's largest ranches.

From Casper they went to the Grand Teton national park. They described the rugged scenery of the Teton as the most beautiful of all they saw on their entire trip. Here they saw Jackson Lake and went boating on Jenny Lake.

At Yellowstone national park they saw the geysers, including Old Faithful, the warm springs and many other points of interest. They rode up the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone river. The thought of the 494 steps back discouraged Mr. and Mrs. Brown from walking those steps down to get a better view of the Yellowstone Falls.

Their son, Roger, however, made the trip and will probably remember it the rest of his life. They also stopped to see the Fishing bridge. At Yellowstone they saw the bear, moose, elk and a large herd of bison. Enroute home they crossed the formidable Big Horn mountains saw the bad lands and stopped in the Black Hills of South Dakota to see Mt. Rushmore and to visit Deadwood where the first gold mine to be discovered in the Black Hills is located. From there they continued thru Minnesota and home.

When asked if they had experienced any difficulty, Mrs. Brown replied with pride, "No trouble. Our old Ford didn't 'boi a bit'."

Mrs. Mamie Miller and daughter, Edith, of Cincinnati, O., spent the last week at the Arthur Maue and Owen Maue homes. Thursday evening a family potluck supper was enjoyed at the Owen Maue home. Those attending were Mrs. Miller and Edith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Maue, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mast and Dr. and Mrs. E. G. McMahon.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Maue and children, Kay and Arthur and Miss Edith Miller accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Robert Uther and son James for a swim at Willow Springs pool Monday evening. Following a refreshing dip they returned to the Six and Seven for refreshments and watched movies of Jimmie's summer camp trip in Eagle River, Wis.

Robert and John Stellwager spent last Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stellwager in Mokena.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blank and children returned Wednesday after having enjoyed a pleasant vacation. They spent one week of their vacation at Siren, Wis. and describe the fishing as fair in spite of the heat. They spent several days in Michigan City with his mother, and also visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roll, in Lowell, Ind. for a few days.

Mrs. William Stellwager and daughter, Mrs. Arthur Smith, of Joliet spent Monday in the Owen Maue home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Stellwager entertained the Freeman Fellowship of the Marley Community Baptist church in their home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Buy and children of Palos Heights were visitors at the Owen Maue home, Saturday evening.

The prize money for ribbons won by individual projects was also passed out.

Mrs. Stellwager and Mrs. Maue showed the girls how to make baby Mum corsages. The meeting was closed with the 4H pledge. Kay Maue and Sharon Lauffer served refreshments. Sharon Lauffer, reporter.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Night driving increases in winter.
Not only are the hours of darkness longer, but motorists extend their driving time to get to their destination—especially when heading South!

Darkness and drowsiness are friends—but they're not the
driver's friends.
Here are some tips to help you avoid fatigue or sleepiness:

1. Eat lightly if you're planning extended night driving. A heavy dinner and heavy eyelids go together.
2. Occasional coffee stops are good "pick-uppers."
3. Keep the car well ventilated.
Avoid excessive use of the heater.
4. Make sure the car seat is adjusted to insure maximum comfort, since poor steering posture can drain your much-needed energy.
5. A car radio is a big help, but select lively "wake-up" music to keep you on the alert.

If, in spite of all your precautions,
the temptation to sleep becomes irresistible, pull off to the side of the road and take Oscar Wilde's advice.
He said "The only way to overcome temptation is to give in to it."

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Often major Washington explosions are triggered by a circumstance obscure to the public.

Thus, recent request of major airlines could set off probe.

Major airlines have applied to
CAB, the Civil Aeronautics Board, for permission to reduce commissions paid
thousands of independent
travel agencies. CAB has authority on everything pertaining to civil aviation.

CAB has in the past taken
many steps to block independent airlines from competing with the majors, so they apparently feel it will be a routine matter
to secure approval for the plan to cut down the independent travel agent. Yet, the issue, from the airlines' standpoint, is so petty, it may be the straw that breaks the camel's back.

Independent travel agents are credited with doing a great selling job for air travel, but in addition travel agents have become almost indispensable to the traveler. Buying transportation through an experienced travel agent who knows facilities, connecting lines, and other data,
the traveler avoids standing in line in an airline ticket office,
the often futile attempts to seek information from a green clerk
and other harassments.

For this service, the travel agent receives a 5% commission. Thus, on a cross country trip, the average commission to the agent for all his services is only $4.95. But now the major airlines want to cut this to $1.50.

© National Federation of Independent Business

In fact, major airlines are going even further.

Fully staffed ticket offices are opening in many communities
so small they do not even support a medium-sized department store. In smaller towns
they are trying to sell tickets
through traveling ticket trucks.

It is important to bear in mind that airline tickets are not a commodity bought by a large share of the people on a frequent basis. Thus, in many communities there is no economic justification for an airline office.

Yet major airlines are willing to spend dollars to save pennies.

Therefore, this move may start
a full scale probe of airlines.

There are many in Washing-ington, in and out of Congress,
who have long asked, "Just how good is the business management of the major airlines?"

It is based on several factors.

For example, despite the fact that the major airlines receive millions from the U. S. Treasury as a mail subsidy, in practically every major U. S. city plush airline facilities occupy highest valued property.

Yet, when independent competition has succeeded in getting permission to fly, despite CAB obstructions, it has given the public good low-cost service at a profit with no subsidies.

Many in Washington feel major airlines represent monopoly
practices in the highest degree.
Competition is restricted by a government bureau and they enjoy heavy subsidies. And now, to keep from paying 5% commission on tickets, the major airlines are willing to spend several times that amount to operate ticket sales facilities in small communities.

ANGLING ANGLES by old Hi

Of all the fresh water game fish, muskie hold a special challenge to a great many anglers. Men travel hundreds of miles for the chance to outwit and subdue even one of these river and lake "tigers".

The best results in taking muskies,
of course, do not occur in the warm summer days, but improve when the water temperature lowers from the latter part of August until the end of the season in late fall. A few good specimens are caught, though, during the early days when the water is cooled by rains.

Strong and dependable tackle is needed. For both bait casting and trotting you might use The Ozark tubular steel casting rod 5½ feet in length, or the Higlass solid glass casting rod of same length. You would want a top quality level wind bait casting reel of 100 yard line capacity, for muskies put a lot of wear on a reel during their savage and long runs.

For the trotting rod of solid glass,
a special Sea Level reel with star drag is recommended for better control of a large and vicious muskie.
The Higlass bait casting reel would be suitable for plug tossing. In lines, use the best quality braided nylon of around 30 pound test for casting, and for trotting use either the same test nylon or a 15-thread cuttyhunk linen line.

Your leader for bait casting may be of 30 pound test monel metal, 6 inches long, fitted with a swivel at one end and a snap at the other. For trotting, employ the same kind of leader 12 inches in length.

Among good muskie lures to troll
and cast, there are the solid and jointed Hico plugs in red-and-white, and green-and-yellow scale finish colors;
red-flash wobblers; combination wig-
glers; and the drone spoons.

However, tests may reveal, as Old Hi says in his booklet "Fishing For The Millions", that muskies, as well as other fish, can be cajoled into taking lures of a kind, and at a time, that does not conform to regular practices.
This condition lends more interest to the sport.

Write today for your free copy of
"Fishing For The Millions", by sending a postcard request to me, in care of this newspaper, and get all the dope on how to tease the tigers into striking your spoons and plugs.
You'll find out when bait casting rings the bell, and how to cope with stubborn muskies.

With the salt water fish along the beaches and reefs also taking hold better as fall approaches, this is a good time for you to stock up on the boat rods, reels, lines, and lures needed to handle all kinds of inshore species. To do this to best advantage, and at the least expense, send for your free copies of Old Hi's booklets called
"Salt Water Sports Fishing" and
"Pacific Coastal Fishing," for these tell you just what to use for each game fish.

It's adequate preparation that means half the success of your trips to lake, stream, and seashore, and by heeding the suggestions given in the three booklets mentioned you'll be set for some record catches.

Easy Does It at Silo-Filling Time

...with a JOHN DEERE Forage Harvester

You ride through silage harvests with a John Deere Forage Harvester . . . forget completely about the back-breaking lifting of heavy bundles that used to be a part of every silo-filling season.

But work isn't all you save with a John Deere. You save time because the John Deere converts your standing row crops into finely cut silage in a fast trip through the field . . . save money because the John Deere eliminates the bundle-handling crew.

Adjustable length of cut and quick, easy
change from row crop unit to windrow pickup enables the John Deere to handle windrowed hay crops with the same efficiency. See us for complete details.
